Words from the Prez.

First of all, this 2018 has been a great year so far here in the Daniel Boone Chapter. Thank you to all of you who worked to make the Frontier Adventure a success. I appreciate those of you who stepped up and made it possible, while I had a good excuse for missing this one.

I also would like to thank all of you who helped out and camped in the FCF village at Powwow. I think we had a good representation of the Spirit of FCF, but we could always have more there.

Lastly, thank you to all of you that volunteered at the National Rendezvous. That is the main reason we had a strong representation, and ultimately why we won Best Chapter Award. Of course this award just displays how amazing the Daniel Boone Chapter is.– Frank Reed, Reed

National Rendezvous

National Rendezvous was quite the experience. From the hot weather and thunderstorms, to the amazing services and times of fellowship. Daniel Boone Chapter was represented very well in our willingness to serve and help to make the event possible. I am proud to say that Daniel Boone Chapter was awarded the Best Chapter Award, in which most our points we received were from volunteer hours. We also had several of our members place in the individual competitions, listed below:

Craig Kelley – 2nd Knife Throw

Bob Triphahn – 3rd Trade Skills Blacksmithing

Jerry Haines – 1st Trade Skills Accessories (Powder Horn with Matching Primer Horn),
1st Trade Skills Knife (Damascus Knife), Best Of Show Old Timers (Damascus Knife)

Frank Reed – 3rd Trade Skills Accessories

My apologies if I missed someone, but as you can see for yourself, we had a great representation and even better fellowship with our FCF brothers and with Jesus in our services.

Go to Church

On a Wednesday evening, a man was laying down on his bed after a long day. His mom walked in the room and proceeded to try and wake him saying, "It's 6 o'clock! Wake up! Time to go to church!"

The man mumbled and groaned as he replied, "I don't want to go!"

"What do you mean?" she said. "That's silly! Now get your Ranger shirt on and go to church!"

"No!" he shot back. "I'll give you two reasons. I don't want to go and they don't like me!"

"Nonsense," she told him. "I'll give YOU two reasons to go. First, you are 42 years old, and second, you are the OUTPOST CORDINATOR!"

A CORRECT ASSUMPTION

A woman was being tailgated by a stressed out man on a busy boulevard. Suddenly, the light turned yellow, just in front of her. She did the right thing, stopping at the crosswalk, even though he could have beaten the red light by accelerating through the intersection.

The tailgating man was furious and honked his horn, screaming in frustration as he missed his chance to get through the intersection, dropping his cell phone and coffee cup.

As he was still in mid-rant, he heard a tap on his window and looked up into the face of a very serious police officer. The officer ordered him to exit her car with his hands up. He took him to the police station where he was searched, finger printed, photographed, and placed in a holding cell. After a couple of hours, a policeman approached the cell and opened the door. He was escorted back to the booking desk where the arresting officer was waiting with his personal effects.

He said, "I'm very sorry for this mistake. You see, I pulled up behind your car while you were blowing your horn, flipping off the guy in front of you, and cussing a blue streak at him. I noticed the 'What Would Jesus Do' bumper sticker, the 'Choose Life' license plate holder, the 'Follow Me to Sunday-School' bumper sticker, the Royal Ranger emblem, and the chrome-plated Christian fish emblem on the trunk, and so naturally... I assumed you had stolen the car."
